"A Learning Vacation You'll Long Remember"
in Boothbay, Maine

Come spend a fabulous extended weekend at one of the most magnificent inns on the coast of Maine, and learn all about one of our greatest treasures from the sea – LOBSTERS!!

-  Discover the gracious hospitality of our host, Dianne Ward, of the Kenniston Hill Inn B&B, a classic shipbuilders federal-style mansion built in 1786 in spectacular Boothbay, Maine. (You can see and learn more about the inn at www.kennistonhillinn.com.)
-  Experience hands-on and on-site learning about lobsters directly at the source, with distinguished faculty from the Lobster Institute at the University of Maine (www.lobsterinstitute.org).
-  Take a boat trip and see how traps are hauled.
-  Learn about lobster biology and ecology, value-added products, stock management and more.
-  Roll up your sleeves for a culinary adventure in preparing your own lobster luncheon.
-  Visit a lobster buyer's wharf at a true working waterfront.
-  AND, OF COURSE, DINE ON LOTS OF LUSCIOUS MAINE LOBSTER!

Tuition is $575 per person.

Tuition includes all lobster meals, learning and entertainment, and a contribution to the Lobster Institute. Does not include lodging fees.

Call Kenniston Hill Inn B&B for Room Selection & Rates ($450 - $570 dbl. occ. For all 3 nights.)
